

Chambers Copies

A paper copy of the documents filed through the Court's CM/ECF system must be immediately delivered (by courier or mail) to the Intake area of the divisional office to which the relevant case or proceeding has been assigned.

All copies must be accompanied by a copy of the CM/ECF receipt (also referred to as the NEF, Notice of Electronic Filing) confirming the filing of the original document and marked "Chamber's Copy."

In addition per the Court's Local Bankruptcy Rules, some documents require a Courtesy Copy to be delivered directly to Chambers. This practice does not change with electronic filing. Therefore, some documents may require more than the Chambers copy as described above be delivered to the Court. Courtesy copies may also be delivered (by courier or mail) but these documents must be clearly marked as Courtesy Copies and include a copy of the CM/ECF receipt (NEF).
